The Playgirl Magazine Collection for the month of November, 2000.Secondary menu Search form Weather, Amman IDF drill to take place in Jordan December 31, 2010 M Jeff Kaye Journal staff reporter The United States and Jordan will join in a full-fledged joint military exercise as part of ongoing efforts to strengthen the ties between the two countries, Defense Minister Shaul Mofaz said Tuesday. Mofaz told his Israeli counterparts the drill, which will involve U.S. soldiers and Jordanian forces, will be conducted on Jordanian soil for the first time. Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, in his first meeting with his Jordanian counterpart since assuming office in March, told Mofaz that he and King Abdullah II are committed to strengthening the alliance between the two nations. The Israeli defense minister said Israel would work with Jordan to secure the border with Syria. He said Israel would support Jordan in its efforts to build "bilateral relations with the Syrian regime" in the wake of the anti-government protests in Syria. Later in the day, Netanyahu heads to New York for his first meeting with Secretary of State Hillary Clinton. The U.S. State Department said in a statement that the meeting will "focus on the strategic and security relationship between Israel and the United States." In Jerusalem, Netanyahu told visiting U.S. Defense Secretary Robert Gates that "Israel is committed to working with the United States on building security cooperation at all levels." Mofaz also told Israel Radio that Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and the U.S. secretary of state were hoping to conclude an agreement on the supply of F-15 fighter jets to the Jordanian Air Force. "We are close to concluding this deal, and there are indications that the deal will be concluded before the end of January," Mofaz said, adding that
